THE SPATIOTEMPORAL PUZZLE SERIES

FLORENCE

THE HIGH RENAISSANCE • 1450–1550 AD

Step into the workshops, basilicas, and banking halls of Renaissance Florence between 1450 and 1550 AD—the golden century that transformed art, science, and the architecture of the Western mind.

From the daring engineering of Brunelleschi's Duomo and the bustling bottegas of Verrocchio and Leonardo, to Michelangelo's heroic David, Botticelli's mythological visions, and the financial empire of the Medici, this archival edition reconstructs eighty foundational dimensions of Florentine civilization.
